

TITLES CAN BE TELLING

Reread the title of the book. Think about what's included in the title, the image chosen for the cover, and anything else on the front. Complete the graphic organizer below before, during, and after reading to help you consider how the title connects to the book.

NAME: _____

BOOK TITLE: _____

BEFORE READING:	DURING READING:	AFTER READING:
What images do you see? What do you think will happen? What questions do you have?	What connections to the title do you notice?	Look back at your before reading section. See if your thinking has changed. Why do you think the author chose this title? What does it mean in relation to the story? Would you pick a different title?