

Nature Did It First

Engineering Through Biomimicry

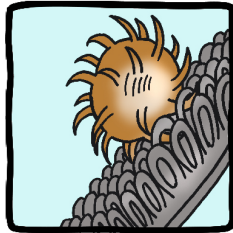

RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD

Adhesive: a material used for sticking objects together

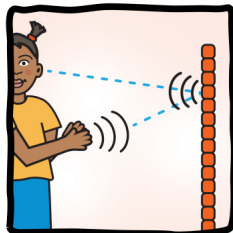

Biomimicry: the process of designing nature-inspired solutions to human problems

Carnivorous: plants or animals that eat meat

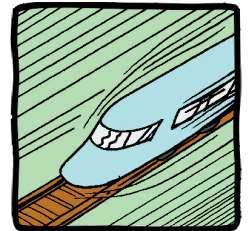

Echolocation: the use of reflected sound waves (echoes) to locate objects

Engineer: a person who uses science and math to design or invent things

Streamlined: having a pointed shape that makes movement easier through air or water

Technology: a tool or machine designed to help solve a problem or meet a need

Vibrations: a rapid back-and-forth movement

