

We've Got the Whole World in Our Hands

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition cloud	a soft, puffy shape in the sky made of tiny water droplets; a ____ can be white, gray, or dark, and they help bring rain or snow hand	the part of your body at the end of your arm, including your fingers and thumb, that you use to hold things moon	a big, round light in the night sky; it changes shape and reflects light from the sun mountain	a very high hill rain	water that falls in small drops from clouds in the sky sun	a big, bright ball in the sky that gives us light and warmth wind	air that you can feel when it moves; it can be gentle or strong world	the big place where we all live, with land, water, and people everywhere