

She Persisted in Science

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition attribute	when you say that something belongs to or is caused by someone or something constant	when something stays the same and does not change development	when something grows, changes, or improves over time encourage	when you give someone support or confidence to keep going improve	when you make something better than it was before inspire	when you feel excited to do something creative or special intense	when something feels very strong or powerful persist	when you keep trying, even when something is hard reassurance	when you say or do something to make someone feel less worried relieve	when you make pain, stress, or worry go away