

I Dissent

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition adore	when you really love something or someone a lot attend	when you go to an event or place, like a school or a party concur	when you agree with someone or something daring	when you are brave enough to try something new or risky differ	when you are not the same as someone else, or have different opinions disagreement	when you don't agree with someone and have different ideas or opinions dissent	when you disagree with what is being said or done, especially in a group exclude	when you leave someone out and don't let them be part of something inequality	when things are not fair or equal for everyone marvelous	when something is really amazing or wonderful