

Pickin' Peas

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition bargain	when you have an agreement where two people decide on a fair exchange creep	when you move slowly and quietly so no one notices disguise	when you wear or do something to hide who you are grumble	when you complain in a low voice, usually because you're annoyed peek	when you look quickly or secretly at something persistent	when you don't give up, even when something is difficult startle	when you surprise someone so much that they jump or gasp tremble	when you shake slightly because of fear, excitement, or cold trickster	someone who uses cleverness or mischief to fool others wander	when you move around without a clear direction or purpose