

Half a Blanket

VOCABULARY

| Word       | Student-friendly definition                                      |
|------------|--|
| constant   | when you happen or exist all the time; steady and unchanging     |
| company    | a group of people or friends you spend time with                 |
| harmony    | a peaceful, pleasing arrangement where things work well together |
| jolly      | happy, cheerful, and full of good spirits                        |
| local      | relating to a nearby place or area                               |
| particular | specific or detailed; not general                                |
| toil       | hard work or effort over a long time                             |
| wove       | when you weave or twist threads together to make cloth or fabric |