

Ballet for Martha: MAKING APPALACHIAN SPRING

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD

acrobat: someone who does tricks for other people, like walking on a tightrope in the circus angular: something that has a lot of angles or pointed edges ballet: a kind of dancing that uses costumes, music, and sets to tell a story farmhouse: a house on a farm, in pioneer days made of wood from trees on the farm frontier: a place far away from cities; a place where not many people live obstacle course: a path that has a lot of things people have to jump or climb over in order to go through severe: very serious or strict; harsh solemn: sad and serious tantrum: a fit; a fuss; a moment of anger troupe: a group of dancers who work together

