

Lucky Ducklings

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD

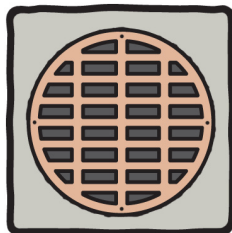

cable: a thick, strong rope made of wires that are twisted together fireman: someone who works to put out fires grate: a piece of metal with bars going across it, used to cover openings island: a piece of land in the middle of water park: a place outside with a lot of trees or plants where people can go to play pond: a small body of water surrounded by land; like a small lake ruckus: a lot of noise; something happening that makes a lot of noise shore: the land along the edge of water storm drain: a hole in the ground that carries water away from the street town: a place where a lot of people live; like a small city

