

A Balloon for Isabel

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD

bookmark:

something put in a book to show where you stopped reading gumdrops: a sweet, chewy candy to gaze: to look at something for a long time mylar: a kind of strong, thin material used to make balloons olive: small, egg-shaped black or green fruit packing bubbles: a thin sheet of plastic with air bubbles in it; you wrap it around objects to keep them from breaking quill: one of the hollow, sharp parts on the back of a porcupine recess: a time for children to play to shrivel: to shrink; to become dry and wrinkled to strap: to fasten by using leather, rope, cloth, etc.

