

Sylvia's Spinach

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD bunches: a group of something held or tied together or that grow together delicious: smells or tastes good drizzly: raining a little lasagna: a food with made with layers of noodles, meat or vegetables, cheese, and sauce licked: touched something with your tongue packet: a small envelope or package pluck: to pick out and remove or take away salad: a mix of raw green vegetables, like lettuce, spinach, or kale shoots: the parts of new plants just beginning to grow above the ground trade: to give one thing in order to get something else

Reading Is Fundamental