

The Eye of the Whale

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD

captain: the person in charge of a ship assemble: to collect things or gather people into one place or group diver: a person who swims underwater with special equipment to breathe nudge: to touch or push someone or something gently float: to move along by water, air, or wind fog: a thick, white cloud making it hard to see shore: the place where the land and the water meet to bob: to move up and down quickly surface: the top layer of water in an ocean vibrate: to move from side to side quickly

